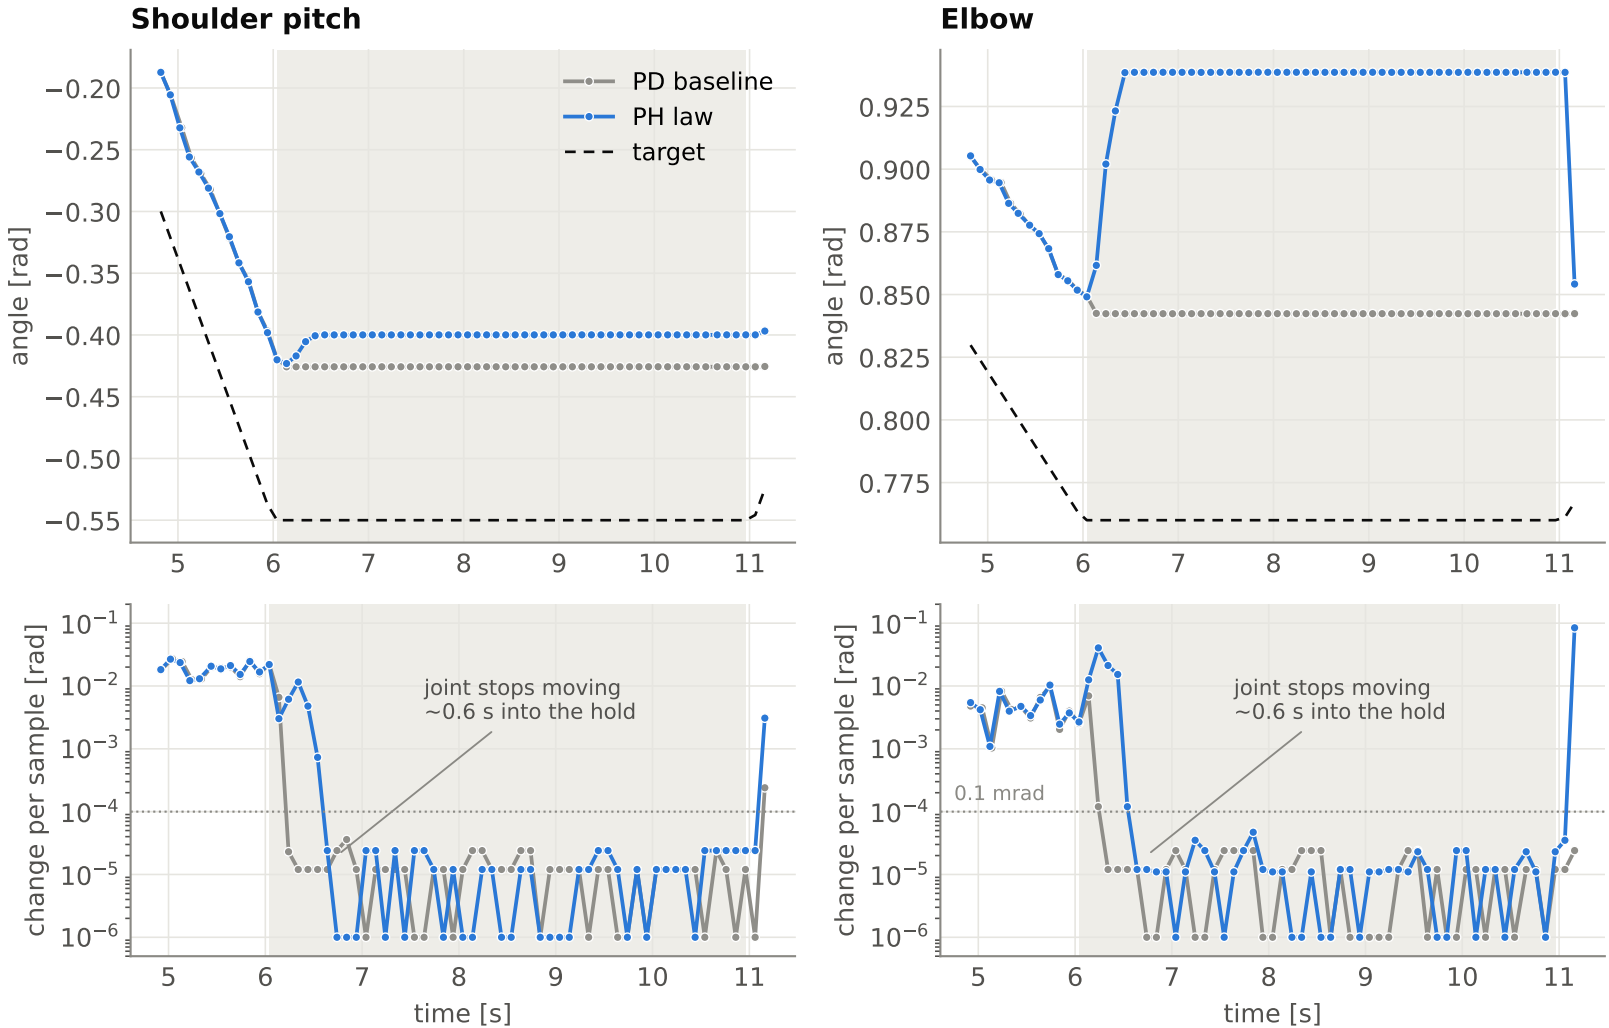
The 5 s hold is a 0.6 s transient, then a frozen equilibrium


Every logged sample shown (10 Hz). After the switch, the joints stop within about six samples in both runs: what the hold reports is a static offset held by friction, not tracking.